

The UK Cerebrospinal fluid disorder day
Hosts: Professor Alex Sinclair and Miss Susan Mollan,
University of Birmingham and Queen Elizabeth Hospital, University
Hospitals Birmingham.

0900	Welcome
0900	Speed cases and research rapid fire Abstracted headache/CSF session from ophthalmology, neurology and neurosurgery. Submit short abstract (350 words) to course organiser rupa.patel@uhb.nhs.uk by 3 rd April 2020. Best case prize and research prize will be awarded.
1015	Calcitonin Gene-Related Peptide (CGRP) pathway monoclonal antibodies, the first preventative medication specifically designed for migraine – the whole story
1100	COFFEE
1130	Birmingham real world data on Erenumab (a CGRP -mab)
1150	Intracranial Pressure (ICP) Monitoring with Meithke™ devices
1220	ICP Monitoring with Rau™ devices
1240	Insights into ICP physiology...what the monitors tell us
1300	LUNCH
1400	Imaging optic nerve head with optic coherence tomography (OCT)
1440	How I use OCT imaging to make decisions in the eye clinic
1510	TEA
1540	Key points for investigating and managing low pressure headaches
1610	Chronic headache or is it IIHWOP?
1640	Meeting close

5.5 CPD points will be been applied for from the Royal College of Ophthalmologists.

Industry support for this meeting is in the form of sponsorship of stand space. Sponsors had no input to the clinical content of the program.